ComSoc/IETE – Side Agreement

THE COMMUNICATIONS SOCIETY (COMSOC) of THE INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL AND ELECTRONICS ENGINEERS, INC.
and
THE INSTITUTE OF ELECTRONICS & TELECOMMUNICATIONS ENGINEERS (IETE)

Publications Side Agreement

1. IETE Promotion in ComSoc
   1.1. The IEEE Communications Society (ComSoc) will review for publication yearly at least one article, previously published in a IETE journal or magazine. ComSoc will publish no more than two such articles per year. A IETE officer will manage the preparation of these articles, submitting them for publication in collaboration with the ComSoc Directors of Magazines or Journals for consideration in the appropriate ComSoc journal or magazine.

   These articles will be prepared in English prior to submission to ComSoc.

   1.2. Activities of IETE will be promoted in ComSoc's IEEE Communications Magazine using a one-page advertisement prepared by IETE describing the Organization and its programs.

   1.3. The IETE advertisement will appear annually in IEEE Communications Magazine no later than 3Q of every year; publication date will be mutually agreed upon no less than six months prior to publication.

   1.4. ComSoc will display the one-page advertisement in its www server and replace the advertisement with an annual update from IETE; a pointer will be provided to the IETE home page.

   1.5. ComSoc will display one copy of each IETE journal and magazine at ComSoc's ICC and GLOBECOM conferences and will distribute subscription forms and calls for papers as provided by IETE. One current copy of each IETE publication will be air shipped to ComSoc for this purpose.

2. ComSoc Promotion in IETE
   2.1. IETE will review for publication yearly at least one article previously published in a ComSoc journal or magazine. IETE will publish no more than two such articles per given year. ComSoc’s Director of Journals or Director of Magazines will manage preparation of these articles, submitting them to the Editorial Board Director of IETE for consideration in the appropriate IETE journal or magazine.

   ComSoc will submit these in English; IETE will determine whether to translate them into the local language for publication.

   2.2. ComSoc publications will be promoted in a IETE magazine or journal using a one-page ad prepared by ComSoc describing the Communications Society, its sister-society relationship with IETE, and ComSoc magazines and journals. This ad will be published annually and will focus on publications.

   2.3. The annual advertisement will appear in IETE’s magazine no later than 3Q of every year; the publication date will be mutually agreed upon no less than six months in advance.

   2.4. IETE will display the one-page advertisement in its www server and replace the advertisement with an annual update from ComSoc; a pointer will be provided to the ComSoc home page.
2.5. IETE will display one copy of each ComSoc's magazine and journal at major IETE conferences and meetings, and will distribute subscription forms and appropriate ComSoc calls for papers. One current copy of each publication will be air shipped to IETE for this purpose.

2.6. IETE will offer ComSoc's magazines and journals in annual subscription promotions associated with membership renewals. The current IETE member subscription rates for ComSoc publications (print and electronic combination) shall be as follows (US dollars):
