Society Petition

This web site is for IEEE Communications Society Members* (excluding undergraduate Student Members).

From this page you will be linked to the IEEE ComSoc Petition page which allows members to electronically “sign petitions” for ComSoc petition candidates.

To access the site, potential “signers” must be IEEE ComSoc members. When you enter your member information (web account-username/password) and navigate to the site, you will find the petition candidate/candidates listed for the ComSoc election:

Nomination By Petition | Electronic Petition | Paper Petition

If you have questions regarding petitioning, you may contact (petition [at] comsoc [dot] org)

* Includes Graduate Student Members

 Therefore, please consider renewing your membership before completing the electronic petition. If you have not renewed your IEEE and Communications Society memberships for 2010 you may receive a message saying you are not eligible to sign the petition.
