Learn and Discover through Play!

OUT OF PRINT

First appearing in the IEEE Communications Magazine in 1981, the 300 CommuniCrostic Puzzles were created over the time by Dr. Paul Green, an outstanding pioneer in the communications industry.

This 400-page master collection of CommuniCrostic puzzles captures the 30 years of telecom evolution in its buzzwords.

Behind the enjoyable, challenging, and probably addictive nature of these puzzles is the significant role this book plays as an educational tool.

Conceits. Dry holes. Breakthroughs. Milestones. They're all here. You'll be amused to observe, explore, and rediscover the modern history of Communications technologies through this expert compendium of telecom-related quotes and jargon.

Learn and discover through play. These remarkable, unique puzzles from a mastermind in the industry will bring you a fun, eye-opening, rewarding experience.
